DETAILED ACTION

Restriction

1. I. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a matrix, classified in class 428, subclass .
 - II. Claims 11-18 and 21-23, drawn to a method of making a matrix, classified in class 264, subclass 898.
 - III. Claims 19-20, drawn to a method of bone repair, classified in class 623, subclass 23.51.
2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product could be made without cross-linking the matrix.
3. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the method as claimed could be performed with a matrix having a different composition.

Art Unit: 3738

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Reginald Suyat on March 5, 2002 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of III, claims 19-20. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-10, 11-18, and 21-23 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 19 recites the limitation "at said site" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3738

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

9. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Rhee et al. (US 5,264,214). Rhee et al. disclose the method of bone repair comprising applying a porous, biodegradable, three-dimensionally stable matrix having shape retention comprising fibrillar collagen, polyethylene glycol (or gelatin), and hydroxyapatite (see column 4, lines 62-68; column 5, lines 3-6 and lines 18-21; column 6, lines 55-59; column 7, lines 37-45 and lines 65-68).

10. Claims 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Piez et al. (US 5,425,770). Piez et al. disclose a method of bone repair comprising applying a matrix made of fibrillar atelopeptide collagen, calcium phosphate mineral, and a dispersion of collagen in water of buffer. Said matrix or composition could be (if desired) cross-linked with glutaraldehyde. Said matrix held its shape several weeks after implanting (see column 2, lines 36-46 and lines 66-67; column 5, lines 52-55; column 6, lines 16-25; column 7, lines 13-17; column 9, lines 10-12).

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Silver et al. (US 5,532,217). Silver et al. disclose a matrix comprising mineralized collagen fibers, hydroxyapatite, and a carrier such as propylene glycol or gelatin.
